

Almost Home

© 2004 Joy Davis ~ Keith May

Verse 1

Just eighteen 'n finally on your own
A string of bad choices left you broke and alone
You're a big girl now 'n there's
So much to prove.
Trying hard to keep your life on track
But every repair brings another crack and you're

Refrain:

Almost home
The flag of surrender is hid'n behind the next groan .

Verse 2

You're gonna straighten up just like they want you
Happy again maybe you can fool two
The mother and the mirror
This fortress never looked too strong
Rubble again, it won't be long

Refrain:

Almost home
The flag of surrender is hid'n behind the next groan

Bridge

Oh... sweet release
Discovering who you are can bring such peace.
The truth is just a breath away from where you fall
Do you hear it call?

Verse 3

On your knees and your life's a mess
Or are the possibilities endless
Yea, there's so much to choose.
Lift your eyes from off the ground
Open your heart and ears to the sound of being

Almost home, almost home.
